ELEMENTS OF WELLNESS

LUMINETTE LIGHT THERAPY

(20 mins)

By exposing you to a dose of sunlight via your retinas in a safe, controlled environment, Luminette Light Therapy supports your body by balancing the circadian rhythm, elevating your mood and encouraging a night of restful deep sleep.

THAI TRADITIONAL MEDICINE

Thai Traditional Medicine originated in the Sukhothai period of the 13th century. It combines medicinal science and a philosophy of the elements to promote balance and immunity.

Each individual's constitution is made of earth, wind, water and fire elements. Using traditional diagnostic techniques to find imbalances, your therapist will then utilise indigenous herb concoctions to bring the elements back into harmony.

Our Thai Traditional Medicine practitioner is qualified, registered and licensed by Mae Fah Luang University.

PERSONAL CONSULTATION

ELEMENT REBALANCING CHECK

(20 mins)

Treating the body according to its dominant element will safeguard against illness. When the elements are out of balance, weaknesses rise to the surface and manifest as ailments. Your consultation begins with an in-depth analysis. You will then be prescribed an herbal tea concoction and advice on how to take care of your health based on your constitution.

HERBAL MASKS

An herbal paste will be spread over your body to absorb excess heat and reduce pain and inflammation. Particularly recommended for joint pain and improved circulation, this therapy includes pressure-point work.

POK PIW (BODY MASK)

Rejuvenate the body with Thai herbs that eliminate dead skin cells and remove deeper impurities, leaving the skin moisturised, firm, smooth and responsive.

HERBAL TREATMENTS

PAO YA - Abdomen Fire Therapy
