*"We ourselves feel that what we are doing is just a drop in the ocean.
But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop."*

In keeping with Minor Hotels' pledge to be stewards of the environment and preserve the planet for generations to come, our team here at Anantara Lawana Koh Samui resort is working closely with the local community to establish closed-loop supply chains and protecting biodiversity and natural habitats. We work with local fishermen and farmers, coffee bean growers in Chiang Rai, artisan cheese makers in northern Thailand, and sausage and cold cut makers in Pattaya, and we source free-range eggs from the local Bhavana Bodhigun Vocational College. Providing scholarships for young Thai people to help lift them and their families out of poverty is integral to Anantara Lawana's sustainability efforts and community outreach.
