

ANANTARA ALGARVE

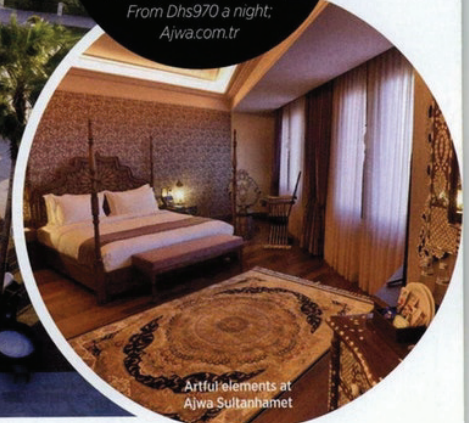

Bringing Anantara's luxury Asian aesthetic to Europe for the first time, Vilamoura in the Algarve oozes quiet prestige. Bucolic, surrounded by rolling golf greens and cerulean pools; cultural, with contemporary local artistry peppering the walls; and well-located, with the celebrity enclave of Vilamoura just minutes away, this is one of Portugal's most exclusive and desirable destinations.

AJWA SULTANHAMET

In the historical peninsula of Istanbul sits the new Ajwa Sultanhamet - fully halal, with views of the old Town and the Marmara sea, it mixes artisan elements such as Tabriz silk carpets and carvings made by Topkapi restorers.

YAS VICEROY

The 2017 Chicago Architecture Biennial is one reason to visit the 'Windy City' this month, while the new Yas Viceroy is another. Sat in the heart of the Gold Coast, it marries modern and 1920s design, and iterates the art, lifestyle and design of one of America's most culture-conscious cities.

THE CONNAUGHT

The Connaught is to London what Emirates Palace is to the UAE - an iconic edifice that characterises the capital. The suites are always worth a stay alone, but the opening of the new Jean-Georges at The Connaught restaurant tantalises all the more. The eclectic menu features dishes from the East to West, with a focus on a farm-to-table ethos.
