7 Incredible Glamping Bubbles Around the World

When the term “glamping” joined the travel lexicon in the mid-2000s, it referred to luxuriously designed tents filled with touches like handcrafted wood furniture and hammered copper tubs in locations from Montana to Mozambique. Now that this style of refined camping is more popular than ever, a new trend is emerging. Clear, see-through bubbles complete with beds, bathrooms and spectacular sky views have joined the glamping universe in countries like Thailand and Iceland. Here are some of the best glamping bubbles around the world.

Dine and sleep amongst rescued elephants at what is arguably the world’s most special glamping experience. At the confluence of Thailand, Laos and Myanmar, guests can sleep in a two-bedroom or single glamping bubble as elephants from the Golden Triangle Asian Elephant Foundation snack on sugarcane while you enjoy a traditional northern Thai dinner. Afterward, sit on your expansive deck or soak in your private hot tub while these gentle giants roam around you as the stars twinkle above.
